Gentlemen:-

I shall appreciate very deeply the loan of the government book showing the true colors of the Great Seal of the United States, as mentioned in our telephone conversation this morning and I shall see that it is returned to you very promptly in good condition. I need it only for a very few days.

Will you send it by mail or do you wish me to send a messenger for it?

Your co-operation is greatly appreciated.

Sincerely yours,

George W. Sutton, Jr.

Dear Sir:

May I ask whether you have finished with the book on the Great Seal of the United States, which was loaned to you from our Library on October 10th last.

Very truly yours,

Secretary

Dear Mr. Noe:

Your letter of May 15th was a great shock to me. I thought that the book on the Great Seal of the United States had been returned to you within a couple of days after it had been borrowed last October. I find, instead, that the person to whom I intrusted this matter, left it at the printer's, and it has been there ever since. I have received it back and am sending it to you today with sincere apologies for this long delay and with renewed thanks for your kindness in lending it to me.

Sincerely yours,

George W. Sutton, Jr.
